

MANAGING OEDEMA IN PALLIATIVE CARE

ZOOM WEBINAR

Thursday 3 October, 7.30 – 8.30am

BREAKFAST
SESSION

REBECCA ABURN

Nurse Practitioner

Rebecca has a 30 year history of clinical experience in neurosciences, intensive care, vascular, diabetic foot, wound care, clinical education and district nursing. She completed her Masters of Nursing in 2006 and has a great passion for nursing practice development. As past treasurer Vice president and now President, for the New Zealand Wound Care Society Rebecca is involved at a national / international level in practice and guideline developments.

In 2010 Rebecca completed an advanced post graduate certificate in clinical nursing. In 2017 she completed her Nurse Practitioner training and work as the Nurse Practitioner for vascular. Rebecca has presented at both National and International conferences. Publishing in wounds UK and setting up the first conservative sharp wound debridement course in 2022

Her areas of professional interest are using innovation to improve the patient's journey, Lymphedema, Pyoderma Gangrenosum, Surgical site infection prevention and care of the complex vascular patient.

This webinar will cover:

- Compression Therapy
- Active and palliative treatment options

REGISTRATIONS REQUIRED

Use the link:

<https://tinyurl.com/HOSOCT>